

Ali Cook

Ali's apparent innocence shades a very mischievous performer. His persona and award winning sleight of hand have put him at the cutting edge of the magic scene.

One of the leading close up magicians of his generation, he's written and performed seven UK television series for Channel Four, Five and Sky One. Two of which have been nominated for the Golden Rose D'or comedy award: Monkey Magic, Dirty Tricks.

His surreal street magic and stand up act have attracted a large and diverse audience including: private parties for J K Rowling, Damian Hirst, Minnie Driver, The Duchess of York, Basement Jaxx to blue chip corporate events to a role in the feature film Sahara for paramount pictures. He's also a favourite on the comedy club circuit.
