

Barry & Stuart

Barry and Stuart are 2magicians. They regularly perform wonder invoking, laughter inducing, awe inspiring magic.

Stylistically dark and sometimes weird they are creepy cool, funny and magical, what more could you want in the name of entertainment? A monkey riding a little bicycle maybe, but they are a good start.

TV MAGIC

After winning national 'Young Magician of the Year' competitions the duo wrote and starred in their own television series, the Golden Rose award nominated "Magick." Then in 2005 they hosted Friday night comedy series, "Dirty Tricks," a live studio magic show which is currently nominated for a Golden Rose at Montreux.

Barry and Stuart's magic is of the sort that really effects people. In their 2005 Christmas special, "The Magic of Jesus," the pair raised the dead, walked on water and even made a real honest-to-goodness virgin pregnant... all achieved by demonic forces of course.

Their weird illusions have earned them places in "The Twenty Sickest Tricks of All Time," (Sky One) "The Top Fifty TV Moments," (five) and even a shameful place in the Off Com twenty most complained about programs on television.

BARRY & STUART'S PERFORMANCE

Barry and Stuart perform classical 19th century sleight of hand conjuring with an edge so sharp it could cut the sky.

Ranging anything from 10 minutes to longer sets Barry and Stuart present a mixture of magic, strange feats and comedy sketches involving members of the audience. The specific content of each performance is usually tailored to fit that specific event.

More magical than Merlin himself, more laughter inducing than a bed full of extremely tickly feathers and more twisted than your DNA Barry and Stuart are dark, often bloody but above all very, very funny.

For more information on Barry and Stuart live please contact us for a show-reel.

PRESS QUOTES

"Subversive magicians Barry Jones and Stuart MacLeod boldly go where others fear to tread. Watch and marvel." Scotland on Sunday

"Their own brand of darkly humorous, bizarre illusions has proved a cult hit." The Press and Journal.

"Barry and Stuart work modern-day magic." Radio Times

"Funny but a bit sick and twisted too." Daily Record

"Beneath the gore there are some genuinely remarkable tricks." The Sunday Telegraph

"MacLeod and Jones' approach to magic is refreshing... for those of you old or brave enough, its pure magic." The Big Issue

"Burn the sorcerous blasphemers!" The Guardian